This famous icon of the Trinity, depicts the three persons, Father, Son and the Holy Spirit, at a table where there are four place settings. The final place, in the lower half of the painting, invites the viewer to take the seat and join them. We are not just personally invited to join in the very life of God, and pull together with them in their loving and saving of the world. The seat at the table is reserved for all of humanity. (Richard Leonard)

The work that began with Pentecost, of bringing the Good News and the love and justice of God to the world is our mission. Every time you make the sign of the cross, remember you are signing into this partnership to do the work of God. Be courageous in your faith, joyful in your living and loving in all your relationships.

This poem by a Yr 4 student regarding Big Heart Monday for Nepal is an example.

We've got the courage

One thing I know as a kid

that I've got the power in my soul to change the world.

This is a chance show your heart,

make it all alright for those people who can't see what we've got for them.

Showing we've got care will show that I've got the COURAGE in my heart, in my heart forever.

Making, showing people around us,

to think with their heart not their brain will really make them think.

Showing we got the power will show we have the courage in our heart!
